Peace Prospect Darker--Austria's Change of Attitude--Bismarck's Poor Health--Changes in the Turkish Government.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, May 28.—A despatch from Constantinople gives the following explanation of the return of Mahmoud Damad Pasha to the Turkish ministry: The attempt of Ali Suavi to proclaim the restoration of Murad to the throne so revived the nervousness of Sultan Hamid about conspiracies that Mahmoud Damad was called to the palace and appointed Seraskier. The Sultan felt, no matter how incapable Mahmoud may be and how much harm his intrigues may have done, he is sure of Damad's personal devotion. The Sultan naturally wishes to be surrounded by men whom he is certain are not conspiring against him.

The Daily Telegraph, in its leading article says: to-day's Cabinet Council will decide upon the instruction of the British representative at the Congress. According to an understanding with Count Schouvaloff, Bulgaria has been reduced to less than half the size first proposed. Russia has already admitted a large limitation in Asia and arrangements are in view to get rid of the indemnity entirely.

The peace feeling is not quite so buoyant to-day as yesterday. The uneasiness is caused by the apparent change in the attitude of Austria. While Englend agrees to the Congress, Austria is making demonstrations unfavorable to Russia. No doubt is felt, however, that a Congress will meet.

The Pall Mall Gazette's Berlin correspondent states that formal invitations to attend the Congress will be issued as soon as all the powers have answered their informal communications in regard to the date and other particulars of the meeting.

Prince Bismarck has been advised by his physicians not to take part in the Congress, as personal attendance might prove too exciting and laborious for him in the present condition of his health. It is probable, however, that he will attend at the close of deliberations, and give his formal sanction to the proceedings.

It was reported in Constantinople yesterday, simultaneously with the changes in the government, already announced, that Redif Pasha, former Minister of War and confederate of Mahmound Damad, will succeed Fuad Pasha, and that Osman and Mukhtar Pashas have been appointed to commands in Asia. The superceding of Sadyk Pasha, Chief of the Ministry, by Rushdi Pasha, and the designation of the latter as Grand Vizier, is distinctly a reactionary step. Rushdi, however, is an advocate of peace.

The Times continues to dwell on the necessity of a British protectorate for Turkey, in Asia.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in its leading editorial yesterday, took the same ground, and argued such a protectorate absolutely necessary in the interest of future peace. The Gazette has hitherto rejected every suggestion of the infringement on Turkish independence.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.—The semi official Journal de St. Petersburg, expresses satisfaction at the progress made towards the assembling of the Congress, and the establishment of an understanding, and adds: "Although in view of the existence of a war party in Constantinople, Pesth, and London, some reserve is still necessary, yet every day tends to promote a peaceful settlement.

Insurrection in the Argentine Republic.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, May 29.—A La Plata letter of April 20th, says: A revolution took place in the State of Santa Fe, Argentine Republic, beginning at the capitol, the City of Santa Fe, on the night of the 14th of April, continuing through the next day. The Government troops, being armed with American repeating rifles, defeated the insurgents, killing two and wounding 48 in that city. Gov. Orondo cowardly fled to the parapet of a church until his soldiers were victorious. He then ordered all the dead insurgents to be buried in a common ditch, refusing to allow their relatives to bury them. Several insurgents were captured. The City of Rosario is also held by the Government troops, but in other portions of the State the insurgents have been successful. The town of Coronda was captured by the rebels, and its garrison defeated and its commander killed. The insurgents include nearly all the best families of the State.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENVILLE, N. C. May 27, 1878.

In the News of the 26th inst. received, is the following paragraph, "Pitt county has declared its preference for Yeates for Congress." Pitt county has declared its preference for no one for Congress; no opportunity has been given for doing so, as the County Convention does not meet until June 22nd: The mistake probably originated in mistaking Pitt for Beaufort county, which was reported to have declared for Yeates in in its County Convention of the 18th, but which report was also incorrect. The fact being that at a primary convention of Washington township to appoint delegates to our County Convention—a resolution complimentary of Maj. Yeates was offered. Please make the necessary correction or insert this article, and thus prevent injustice to Pitt county's probable choice at its county Convention to be held June 22nd.

W. R.

Fitting up War Vessels.

By Telegraph to the News.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—The alterations in the State of California are progressing rapidly. She is gradually assuming the warlike appearance of a handsome, formidable corvette. She has been pierced for six guns, some of them are already on deck. The Columbus sets lower in the water. It is thought both will be ready for departure in a month. In anticipation of their early completion, besides the Russians already here, who are ready for service, Capt. Lorman, a commander in the Russian navy, and eight officers now on their way to this port in the steamer Lewiston, and to-morrow a detachment of sailors from the Cimbia will be sent on.

Troops for the Black Hills.

By telegraph to the News.

DEADWOOD, D. T., May 29.—Col. W. V. Sheridan, of Gen. Phil. Sheridan's staff, arrived here last evening. He comes for the purpose of selecting a suitable location for encampments for soldiers now en route to the Black Hills. Three camps will be established, one in the vicinity of Bear Buttes 10 miles from Deadwood, another in the vicinity of Rapids City, forty miles distant, and a third on the Little Missouri River, eighty or ninety miles distant. It is thought these encampments, in connection with the troops at Fort McHenry, will afford sufficient protection from the Indians for the Black Hills, towns and routes during the summer.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

Attempt to Adjourn Soon—Appropriation for Expenses of the Presidential Elections—River and Harbor Bill.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—SENATE—The President pro tem. announced as the Conference Committee, on the part of the Senate, on the bill providing a permanent form of government for the District of Columbia, Messrs. Dorsey, Ingalls, and Barnum.

Mr. Hamlin gave notice that as soon as the Senate should dispose of the Legislative, Judicial and Executive Appropriation Bill he would call up the bill reported by him yesterday, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, in regard to the payment of the fishery award. He said the bill must receive the consideration of Congress at the present session and thus avoid the necessity of an extra session being called.

The Committee on War Claims of the House have unanimously adopted the report of the sub-committee, made by representative Sheily, to pay S. I. Augustine, of Macon, Georgia, for property taken after the surrender at Greensboro, North Carolina.

HOUSE.—A ballot is progressing. Wood, in accordance with the caucus action last night, moved a postponement of the consideration of the question to adjourn to June 8th.

There being a number of vacant seats on the Democratic, side Reagan proposed to call the House.

The Speaker thought a quorum present.

Wood in order to test the quorum moved an adjournment.

Hale, in a taunting tone, "the gentleman wants to filibuster against his own motion."

Wood. No sir; but I want a fair square vote on the proposition.

The motion to adjourn failed on a yea and nay vote. The motion to postpone was then defeated, yeas 124, nays 132. Aiken, Bell, Bland, Beck, Buckner, Cutler, Fuller, Hardenburg, Landers, Morgan, Morse, Pridemore, Reavis and Willis voting with the Republicans. Askell, Phillips, and Reagan voting with the Democrats.

Wood moved to lay the Senate resolution on the table. The vote is now progressing.

Wood's motion to lay the Senate resolution on table was defeated. The House is now voting on the motion to concur with the Senate. Great confusion.

HOUSE—The motion to concur with the Senate adjournment resolution failed, when an amendment fixing day for the seventeenth of June prevailed, in which it is thought the Senate will undoubtedly concur.

A bill appropriating $20,000 for the expenses of the select committee on the Presidential election was reported, but through the opposing tactics of the Republicans it was sent to the committee of the whole, where it takes its place at the foot of the calender and can only be reached by setting aside every other bill on the calendar.

The bill amending the laws relating to Internal Revenue was considered some time ago but no action was taken thereon.

The Legislative, Judicial and Executive appropriation bill occupied the day.

No executive session. The River and Harbor bill comes up Saturday.

Hundredth Anniversary of Voltaire's Death.

By Cable to the News.

PARIS, May 29.—The Government refuses its sanction to out-door ceremonies on the hundredth anniversary of the death of Voltaire. The celebration will take place in the Gaite Theatre next Thursday, over which Victor Hugo will preside. The opening address will be delivered by M. Spuller, a member of the Chamber of Deputies; a discourse by M. Deschapel will follow. M. Theodore de Banville will read a poem, and Victor Hugo will close the proceedings with a speech.

Train Robbers.

By Telegraph to the News.

GALVESTON, May 29.—A News special from Fort Graham says: "Sam. Bass, a train robber, with five of his men is surrounded on Big Caddo Creek, to Billy Meatow, the Sheriff of Stephens county, who was reinforced by ten men from Palo Pinto last night at ten o'clock, and expected to make an attack at daylight this morning. Some fighting was done yesterday and the day before, but no damage was done on our side. It is not known whether any of the outlaws were hurt."

IMMIGRATION.

Why North Carolina Receives no Immigrants—Views of a Foreign-Born Citizen.

Correspondence of the News.

There is not a day when one or the other of our leading newspapers does not contain an editorial, painting in glaring colors, the immense advantages our State offers to those who may be desirous to cast their lot and fortune with us, and every one who has an opportunity to get acquainted with our climate, products and institutions, must admit that our State, though sadly neglected, contains all the elements of wealth, greatness and intellect, which earlier or later must make her the most prominent and prosperous commonwealth of the entire South.

Yet how does it come, that North Carolina, with all her beauty, her mineral wealth, her waterpowers and her generous, hospitable and kindhearted people, does not receive the one hundredth, yea the one thousandth, part of the great tide of immigration which swells every day the population of the Western and some of our Southern States? I propose to take a practical view of the subject, and instead of letting our fancies indulge in a pleasant dream and talk about mountains and dales, rivers and bays and the cool forest made harmonious by the songs of innumerable birds, to show how, and by what means we may receive for North Carolina immigrants to help us build up our State.

The writer of this has been living in North Carolina for the past ten years, and being a citizen of foreign birth, he is more able to understand the character and expectations of the people of his former nationality than the native born, whose experience and judgment could only be obtained from an intercourse with foreigners whom by chance they may get acquainted with. Whenever a man in the old world makes up his mind to leave his country, his home and his kindred, and to brave the stormy billows of the Atlantic, he does it with an expectation to better his condition; yet, how many have returned disappointed, broken in health, pocket and spirit. And why? Because they found matters here entirely different from what they expected.

They had read the glowing and poetical representations of a land of vines, flowers and blossoms, where loveliness fired the imagination and enchanted the heart. But what did they find? A people whose language they did not understand—a country with whose climatic conditions they were entirely unacquainted, and a soil, of whose product and tillage, they did not know anything.

The consequence was a disastrous failure, and if they were able to save anything out of the wreck, they returned home to tell their woeful tale of discouraging experience and blasted hopes.

The cause of their failure was that they had believed an indecorate and idealistic discription of the country of their adoption.

I have been a constant contributor to German and French papers in Europe, in the interest of immigration, but have always made it my duty to give a truthful and unvarnished representation of our country and its institutions and always advised: If you are able to make a comparatively easy living and have a home, stay where you are, as it is here exceedingly difficult, even for a native born citizen, to make a fair living; less easy for one who knows nothing about this country, and does not even speak its language. But if you have some money, say five, six, or eight thousand dollars, and are willing to devote a few months to prospecting, and to get thoroughly acquainted with our interests in agriculture, manufacture and mining, you can not find a better State in all the Union than North Carolina to invest your money in.

During the nine years the writer of this has lived in Raleigh, not less than fourteen English and Scotch families have bought land in our vicinity. How many remain? Three families. Eleven went back to England, and their stories of disappointed hopes and disastrous failure were widely circulated. And what was the cause?

They had been sold by unscrupulous land agents. Go to North Carolina, it is the greatest country in the world. They raise there the finest cotton, as much as 800 pounds to the acre; the finest sweet potatoes, as much as 400 bushels to the acre, not to forget the 6 to 8 barrels corn to the acre, raised almost everywhere. The man listens and believes. Do not all accounts say the same? He makes his calculations: 800 pounds cotton at 10 cents per pound, $80; 400 bushels potatoes, at 50 cents, $200. He sells his little, well-cultivated English farm, where he has lived well and been comfortable, and starts with wife and child, nurse and hobby-horse, for the Bonanza farm in North Carolina. Arrived here, being an entire stranger, he is easily duped, and generally buys a tolerably good plantation, with a questionable title, or a worn-out farm, paying for it about twice what it is worth. He commences work and fails; why? Because farming in England is different from North Carolina farming. The former having a climate entirely different from that of our State. Instead of raising 800 pounds of cotton to the acre, he makes but 200, and instead of having 400 bushels potatoes, he has but 100; meeting with disappointment everywhere, he becomes discouraged, sells the place at about one-half what it cost him, and returns to England with the wreck of his little fortune.

Others succeed; I know two German farmers who came to North Carolina immediately after the war; one of them had $260 and bought 40 acres of uncleared land, in the neighborhood of Holly Springs, paying $4.50 per acre; he has now a plantation of 200 acres, about 100 of it under cultivation, besides cows, sheep, hogs, poultry and two horses; and he would not sell out for less than $2,500. He succeeded because, before coming here, he informed himself thoroughly about our State, and then came to North Carolina with the expectation to do hard work.

But how must we proceed to get immigrants to come here? The answer is simple: Let us be positive instead of superlative in all our representations concerning our State; that is the first maxim. The other is this: No man, be he a man of moderate means or a capitalist, will settle and invest his money in our State as long as our Legislature does not arrange our State debt. Both parties, Republican as well as Democratic, have failed to do their duty in regard to it, fearing to lose popularity by coming to an understanding with our creditors. It acts like a blight, and North Carolina can never prosper as long our indebtedness hovers like a cloud over our prosperity.

The most effective measure which can be brought into action to insure the influx of immigrants into our State is the establishment of a bureau of immigration for the State of North Carolina in either New York City or Baltimore, where the immigrant can be directed, and receive any desirable information concerning our State, where he can see the products of our agriculture and mining industries, and where also ought to be kept a list of such plantations, mills, factories, mines and water powers as there are offered for sale in the various sections of our State. The immigrant from Switzerland will be directed to his mountains in Western North Carolina; the Frenchman to his vineyards in the middle counties, and the North German to the Atlantic coast. Each one will be put into his proper sphere and respective vocation.

You may say the establishment of a bureau of immigration in Baltimore or New York will involve considerable expense. That is not so: $2 000 will cover all expenses, and what a return for it? Deducting the women and children, who pursue no occupation, about 46 per cent. of the whole immigration have been trained to various pursuits, nearly one-half of them are skilled laborers and merchants who have acquired their trades under a rigorous system which prevails in the Old World and come here to give us the benefit of their training and skill without repayment of the cost of such education. Nearly 10 per cent. consists of merchants and traders, who doubtless bring with them considerable capital as well as mercantile experience, while the smaller number of professional men and artists, embracing architects, engineers, inventors, men of thorough training and a high order of talent, contribute to our extended community not only material, but artistic, esthetic, intellectual and moral wealth.

But the question, what is the average money value of an immigrant, is yet unanswered.

The wages of a workman throughout the country average nearly $1 00 per year. Assuming that the families of these men consist of 4 persons 2 adults and 2 small children, let the expenditures of such a family for tea, coffee and sugar and other foreign goods which pay a duty of about 60 per cent. be $60 per annum, flour, meat, butter $150, rent $70 fuel, and light $30, vegetables $30, leaving $60 for clothing and all other wants as needed &c.

As most of these expenditures are for articles of domestic product which pay a succession of profits, not only to the retailer, wholesale dealer and producer, but also to the transporters, a careful computation gives $160, which sum is the measure alike of their consumption, which capitalized gives $800 as the average value of every immigrant man, woman and child. The positive expenditure of growing a man before he becomes a producer is at least $1500, and $750 for a woman, which would make an average of $1,125 for every person of either sex; but taking $800 to be the full average capital value of an immigrant, and multiplying it with 8,316,865, the number of imigrants which landed upon our shores since 1820, it gives the almost inconceivable sum of (86,653,492,000) six thousand six hundred and fifty-three million four hundred and ninety-two thousand dollars, which was added to our national wealth by them.

It is impossible to make an intelligent estimate of the value for the country of those foreign-born citizens, who brought their educated minds, their cultivated tastes, their skill in arts and their inventive genius; in almost every walk of life their influence has been felt.

Alike in the fearful ordeal of war, in the pursuits of peace, in our legislative halls, in the various learned professions, the adopted sons of America have attained eminence.

The fact is established that the wealth, power and prosperity of our country has been greatly augmented by immigration and we hope that our State government will consider the matter—it is of vital importance.

Although the natives of foreign countries no longer believe the exaggerated representations which were formerly made by interested parties, as to the unbounded wealth of our country; yet the advantages and inducements which offer to intending emigrants are not so well known. And with the view of affording to the immigrant such trustworthy information in regard to the several sections of our State as would guide him in making an intelligent choice of a home, the establishment of a bureau of immigration in Baltimore or New York City would prove a great blessing to North Carolina, and its value could never be overrated. May we hope that the time is not far off when our beautiful State is filled by an industrious, thriving immigration, to see our immense water powers utilized, our mines developed and our swamps turned into fertile fields; and may they, who have left their homes, country and kindred and come to live amongst us be welcome in a State which I have learned to love so well, and where I hope that my ashes may once be laid to rest.

Superior Court---Nominating Conventions--Anniversary Exercises.

Correspondence of the News.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 27.

The Superior Court for the county has been in session for the past week, Judge W. A. Moore presiding. He is looked upon, I believe, as being a very fair Judge. He is also a great dispatcher of business. The entire week has been consumed in the trial of the State docket. There were no cases of special importance, only a case of rape wherein a young white woman charges a negro man with committing a rape upon her. The case was given to the jury Saturday night, and at this writing, (one o'clock p. m.), I hear they have come out and say they are unable to agree. I understand they stood 6 for hanging and 6 opposed. The jury is composed of 6 whites and 6 colored. The balance of the term, which ends Saturday, will be devoted to the civil docket.

I hear Judge Moore will leave for the "Paris Exposition," of which he has been appointed an honorary commissioner by the President, immediately after the adjournment of court.

The Judicial Convention meets here on Wednesday, June 5th. Our county convention on the 22nd June. I will send you the result of their action.

The anniversary exercises of the M. E. Sunday School, South, was held in the church on yesterday; there was a very large crowd present. The singing by the school was excellent, and it certainly reflects credit on their teacher, S. Steele, Esq. The annual address was delivered by Rev. J. D. Arnold, Principal of Jonesboro Male and Female High School, and was replete with good instruction to the Sabbath School cause. The school will "picnic it" on an excursion on the the steamer A. P. Hurt, Wednesday, when an enjoyable time will be had.

Crops throughout the county seem to be doing well, and an abundant harvest is looked for.

Demand from the West.

To the Editor of the News:

Advice is always common, and very frequently unclean. When it is forced from a friend, it is generally unacceptable, for then it is a 'hind-sight;" when a stranger offers it, the intrusion is properly rebuked; and especially is it impertinent and insulting when it is gratuitously offered to a people, even though the adviser be hidden under the deceptive name of "quiet old folks."

We people in the "provinces" have an idea that "quiet old folks," living in the big city of Raleigh, have no right to dictate to us what we shall do in anything wherein we have the right to decide. The people of Western Carolina know themselves and their leaders better than "quiet old folks" who doze around the metropolis and imagine that all wisdom is centered in themselves. In olden times it has been said that we

"Gazed and still the wonder grew
That one small head could carry all he knew."

But times and our people are altered, and without further preface it is proper to inform "N," and all other "quiet folks" of his ilk, that Judge Schenck's name will not be withdrawn but will be pressed in the Raleigh Convention for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, by at least twenty-six of the thirty counties, composing the four Western circuits,—the 9 h, 10th, 11th and 12th,—which cover an area of more than one third of the territory of the State, one third of the counties, and one third of the Democratic votes of the "good old North State." "N," doubtless, is betting on a dark horse. There are some who love "darkness better than light, because their deeds are evil;" but in the end they will find their designs are fruitless, their aims thwarted and their "dark horse" cannot cover the ditch. "So mote it be," says the West, including

Anson Affairs.

Correspondence of the News.

WADESBORO, N. C, May 29.

The Anson Bible Society held its monthly meeting on Sunday last. The attendance, though not so large as usual, was very encouraging; everyone apparently interested in the proceedings.

After transacting some preliminary business the Society was very agreeably entertained by an addrdss from the regular appointee, Rev. G. W. Harman, pastor of the Baptist church. The Society numbers among its supporters some of the representative men of our county.

We are now in the midst of school exhibitions. The academy at Lilesville, Rev. N. B. Cobb, Principal, closed on the 24th, inst. W. A. Graham, Esq., delivered the address. Many commended it. It was replete with thoughts especially interesting to the farmer.

The closing exercises of Anson Institute of this town will take place June 14th. Rev. S. C. Alexander, the efficient principal, has not yet announced the programme.

Anson and Richmond will send their quota of feminine loveliness to the University Commencement.

Crops in this county are promising, with the probable exception of wheat. This latter was attacked with rust, but our farmes hope by some precautionary measures to avert partially its injurious affect.

Our people are combatting the political question very coolly and deliberately. The candidates are still abroad, with no indications of cessation. For the Solicitorship the contest has probably narrowed down to Messrs. Lockhart and Norment. Of course Anson wishes all success to her gallant son and indefatigable lawer, J. A. Lockhart.

Jno Robinson, Esq., is prominently mentioned as a candidate for the House. He is a farmer of recognized ability and Anson could not do better than send him to the Legislature.

I note the fact gladly that the Pee Dee Herald and the News are in perfect accord on the Senatorial question. Col. Liles urges his views and preference for Gov. Vance quite strenously sometimes, yet I am inclined to believe they receive the entire approval of the Democrats. Regnant populi. H.

Taxing Drummers.

Correspondence of the News.

I have talked with a number of our merchants and find a large majority opposed to the proposed tax of $500 on drummers. I am not surprised at this. The whole system of restraining or controlling trade is wrong. What objection can there be to allowing any gentleman to politely offer what he has for sale. If the large merchant don't want to buy, he can simply let it alone. The small dealer finds it a great convenience to be able to make his order from samples. These commercial travellers are generally very clever gentlemen. They inconvenience no one and are a blessing to the hotel keeper. I favor doing everything on a liberal, broad basis. If our legislators would tax dogs and let drummers alone, they would be much more profitably employed. I heartily endorse the views of your Franklinton correspondent.

English Cruisers Coming.

Savannah News.

Capt Leddicoat, of the steamer Canima, at New York from Bermuda 16th instant, reports that the English iron clad Sirius, a swift cruiser, has left that port with sealed orders—supposed for the cost of Maine, to look after the movements of Russian vessels in that quarter. The British fleet at Bermuda has also received orders to sail at once for Halifax. This fleet, says the New York Bulletin, consists of several quick sailing gun-boats, manned and equipped, with heathen names, which would be exceedingly troublesome acquaintances for such vessels as the Cimbria, should the latter try her hand at cruising, in the event of hostilities. Simultaneously with the Bermuda announcement, the cable states that a couple of Russian men-of-war from Cronstadt, Wednesday passed through the Danish Sound, supposed to be bound for the United States. We are thus confronted with the prospect of a speedy display of the naval forces of the two countries in our own waters.

Amendment of a Cotton Rule.

Our attention is called to the following extract from the commercial columns of the New York Bulletin, of Saturday, the 25th inst. It is of importance to all of our dealers in cotton, whether sellers or buyers.

The board of managers of the Cotton Exchange have amended rule 13, by adding the following paragraph: "On and after Monday, September 2, 1878, cotton covered with flax-tow bagging, containing shives (or small pieces of straw) or manufactured from unrotted or imperfectly rotted flax, shall be deemed unmerchantable, and shall not be good delivery in this market."

The amendment is ordered posted for ten days, and to be in full force and effect on and after September 2, 1878.

Death of a Native North Carolinian.

The Charlotte Observer says: We see from our Southern Exchanges that Rev. Barnabas Pippin died at his residence in St. Helena parish, La., on the 11th inst., aged 83 years. Mr. Pippin was well known in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Missippi, Arkansas, and Louisiana. He was a member of Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for sixty years, and was the oldest minister of that conference. Mr. Pippin was a native of Raleigh, N. C. but left his native place early in life and had been, we suppose, nearly lost sight of by even what few of his contempories there may be yet living.

Civic Organizations and Citizens on foot and in carriages.
Maj. W. H. Martin and C. A. Mattoon, Esq., will act as aides.

ALBERT MAGNIN, Marshal.

A Bad Example.

The last issue of the Durham Tobacco Plant contains the follo wing sensible remarks:

Raleigh's municipal affairs are in a muddle. At the election in May, ten Democratic and six Republican Aldermen were elected, The Democrats caucussed and nominated city officers, but there seems to be considerable difficulty in electing and placing in office the caucus nominees. They met once a week but adjourn from time to time without taking any action. Democrats are getting mighty contrary and nothing but ignominous defeat and the State once more in the hands of Radicals will bring them to their senses,

CAPE MAY, N. J., May 28.—Congress Hall was sold to day at Sheriff's, sale and bought by R. J. Dobbins, of Philadelphia, for $66,000.

Schooner Abandoned.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The schooner Belle, of Luenburg, Mobile for Havana, with lumber, has been abandoned at sea. The captain and crew were saved.

Orders have been received in Liverpool to ship American cotton for consumption in the mills of Bombay, for the purpose of manufacturing shirtings and medium classes of cotton goods in India.

EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

Political Matters--General News &c.

Correspondence of the News.

GOLDSBORO, May 29.

Yesterday the Republican Executive Committee of the Second Congressional District assembled at Wilson. There was a full meeting of the clan, both white and black. A. M. McCabe, of Edgecombe county, Chairman, presided. Thomas Powers, Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, tendered his resignation as a member of the Committee; so did Maj. H. L. Grant, the Postmaster at this point, and their resignations were accepted. There was another vacancy in the Committee from Lenoir county, occasioned by the death of Mr. Becton. These vacancies were filled as follows; Ex. Judge Clarke, of Craven takes the place of Powers: R. M. Cohen, commonly known as Spike Foot Cohen; takes the place of Maj. Grant, and J. K. Davis, of Lenoir fills Becton's place.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION, was the next business; time and place were considered—Goldsbro was selected and the 10th, day of July as the time,

Ex-Governor Brogden, M. C. was not present at this meeting. Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Wayne, was in attendance. G. W. Stanton, of Wilson, the chronic candidate, was also present. Hon. Lon Moore, of Craven, was absent. It is thought that the "child of the skies," alias "Wayne county plough boy," Hon. C. H. Brogden, now the M. C. from this district, will have to give way to Col. Humphrey.

THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP.

The people in the East are for Gov. Vance, for U. S. Senator; Hon. W. N. H. Smith, for Chief Justice, and Hon. Geo. Howard, for Associate; and any good man from the West.

THE WORLEY MURDERERS.

Noah Cherry, Harris Atkinson, and Bob Thompson, still protest their innocence of the horrible double murder for which they must suffer the death penalty on Friday, the 14th day of June, between the hours of 10 a. m., and 4 p. m.

On Monday last the editor of the Goldsboro Messenger had the culprit's photograph. Old Noah Cherry at first declined, but Mr. Bonitz gave him a new shirt, and he finally consented to sit for his picture. William Shelburne, the well known photographer, took the picture, and they are really very fine likenesses of the guilty wretches. The Rev. Mr. Larmour, of the Episcopal Church, and Rev. B. F. Marable, of the Presbyterian Church, visit the condemned daily. A colored preacher called to day to administer to their spiritual wants.

THE DRUMMER TAX.

The merchants of Goldsboro are opposed to any increase in the tax on drummers. They say here that the News must fight any such proposition.

It is not believed that either the railroad or tariff bills can pass the present session of Congress, as an adjournment is anticipated by the end of June. The Potter investigation will not interfere with the adjournment, as the committee can sit during recess.

WALTON, Cass co., Ind., April 10, 1876.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D.:
DEAR SIR:—Your pleasant Purgative Pellets are the most efficient, yet mild, cathartic I ever used. They have cured me of indigestion, liver complaint, and constipation.
Yours truly,
FRANK WILLARD.

J. P. Gulley Offers.

new style silk veiling at 65c., worth $1.25; ladies 2 button kid gloves at 50cts.; great novelties in corsets at prices from 35cts. to $2.00; Dr. Warner's health corsets at 50cts. to $2.00. Especial attention is called to the grass corset at $1.50, for comfort. Straw matting at 20 and 25cts; also a nice line of dress goods, piques, &c., at bottom prices. I also call especial attention to the fact that I have the best ladies morocco shoe for $2.00 in the market, equal to Miles' or Ziegler's. Call and see his goods and examine prices. tf*

Lumsden's "Old North State Cook Stove" still leads the market as the best and cheapest stove. Lumsden makes a specialty of repairing Sewing Machines of any pattern, Guns, Pistols, Locks, &c. All work warranted. He has just received a large lot of mocking and canary bird cages, fly traps, dish covers, fishing tackle, brooms, baskets, and every thing you want in the house furnishing line can be found at Lumsden's, cheaper than such goods were ever sold before. *

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords. *

Chances For Bargains.

As a place where the best of good bargains may be made by both farmers and city people, we cordially recommend the establishment of Mr. W. A Myatt, on Martin street. In the store may be found all the various things requisite and necessary in the way of farm supplies and groceries of all kinds. *

Wood!

I will sell, for cash, a consigned lot of wood, delivered at any house within the city limits, at the following reduced figures: Good oak at $3.00 per cord; woods pine at $2.75 per cord; field pine, seasoned, at $2.50 per cord. Also 100,000 brick, hard and salmon, cheap.
Office over M. T. Leach's store, Wilmington street. J. D. Whitaker. *

A New Supply

of Misses' Sundowns, Flats, Sailor Hats, and the latest styles of Dress Hats, just received at Wm. Woollcott's new millinery store, corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets. *

Six accredited Russian agents are in Philadelphia. They are very reticent regarding their intentions.

It is said that Mrs. John C. Fremont's daughter has the most beautiful hand mortal eye ever beheld.

STATE TICKET.

Democratic Judicial Nominations.

FOR JUDGE EIGHTH DISTRICT.

ALPHONSO C. AVERY,

of Burke.

FOR JUDGE NINTH DISTRICT.

JOHN C. L. GUDGER,

of Haywood.

THE hail-storm of last Saturday visited an extended area in this State. In Person county hail-stones weighing a pound fell in some places. Fortunately, there were but few of these little giants from the aerial regions, and no great damage was done.

JOHN S. ADAMS, of Mitchell county, was nominated for Solicitor of the 8th Judicial District, at Hickory, yesterday. Mr. Adams is a fine lawyer and an excellent man. The choice is a good one, and will, no doubt, receive the hearty endorsement of the people.

THE good people of Charlotte are much pleased with Judge Cox, who has been holding Mecklenburg Superior Court for two weeks past. His charge against gambling, cock-fighting, betting on elections, selling liquor to minors, &c., was received with general approval. Solicitor Montgomery is the man to back the Judge with the proper papers.

IT is stated on what appears to be good authority that Col. William Johnston, of Charlotte, will be a candidate for Congress in the Fifth District. A writer in the Charlotte Observer says Cabarrus will start him with a good majority. This development will make the contest in that district a very animated one. Col. Steele, the present incumbent, is very popular and has made an excellent representative. His new competitor is highly esteemed, and will push him close, if he does not beat him.

A PROMINENT democrat, of Pitt county, writes us that the statement in one of the Raleigh papers, by a correspondent from that county, to the effect that a great many prominent men in Pitt county were in favor of Merrimon for the Senate, is an erroneous assertion. The writer says: "How, in a few days' sojourn, that correspondent could find out what a resident and one who came in daily contact with people from all parts of Pitt county, never heard of before, is beyond my comprehension. I state without fear of contradiction that this county is for Vance first, last and all the time."

THE News does not dread the rivalry of any newspaper talent employed in North Carolina; it is willing to rest its permanency and success on the popular favor with which it is received, as compared with any other State journal; it is willing to show hands with any or the association of capital behind it, but it cannot undertake to parry with such as stab in the back. One R. W. Best has been engaged, for more than a year coining and circulating falsehoods in regard to the News, wherever he has travelled in North Carolina. His latest reported performance was to solicit of Mr. B. L. Churchill, of New Berne, the withdrawal of his patronage from the News, and to state to that gentleman his positive, intimate knowledge that the News would suspend publication within a few weeks. It is left to a fair-minded public to characterize such conduct as this. The News has only to say that all such statements are wilfully and maliciously false.

EX-PRESIDENT Grant tells a very plain and very emphatic tale to the Paris representative of the New York Herald, with respect to the statement made in a late number of the North American Review, by General Dick Taylor, concerning Grant's advance upon Richmond in the spring of 1864. General Taylor, in the article in question, claimed to have been informed on undoubted authority that Grant wanted to move on Richmond by way of the James river, but was kept from doing so by the fears of Mr. Lincoln, who was unwilling that the army should be withdrawn from the immediate protection of the capital. It was further said that Grant had notified Lincoln that to follow the line of the Rapidan would involve the useless sacrifice of 100,000 men; and that on Lincoln's still insisting, he undertook to fight the campaign as the President desired. Gen. Grant disposes of the whole story with simple directness and vigor; there is not one word of truth in it.

Major A. C. Avery.

The judicial convention which assembled at Hickory yesterday nominated Major Alphonso C. Avery, of Burke, to be judge of the eighth district. That this excellent nomination will be enthusiastically endorsed and confirmed by the State Convention, there can be no doubt whatever.

Major Avery is one of the most conspicious members of a family whose fame is closely linked with the brightest annals of North Carolina. He is a grandson of the elder Waightstill Avery, who was one of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, and was at the time of his death, in 1821, known as "the Patriarch of the North Carolina Bar." Major Avery has inherited his ancestor's pure patriotism, untarnished integrity, clear intellect, firmness and courage. He stands among the foremost lawyers of Western North Carolina, and will bring to the bench a well-informed and thoroughly practical legal mind.

The public services of Major Avery have been of the most honorable and useful kind. He served with much distinction in the Constitutional Convention of 1875. His good sense and parliamentary skill were invaluable in the management of that singular body, with its Democratic majority of one. In every position in which he has been placed, he has filled to the full the measure of his duty, and his elevation to the bench is a fit recognition of his services to the State, no less than of his moral and intellectual worth.

The State Colored Normal School.

The report of the Principal of the Colored State Normal School, for the year recently closed, has been rendered. The local Board of Managers, Messrs. J. H. Myrover, E. J. Lilly and W. C. Troy, give it their hearty approval and endorsement, and add: "The friends of education in North Carolina have cause for unfeigned gratification at the success which has attended the first scholastic year of this institution, and the beneficent results accomplished by its principal." The principal is Robert Harris, a highly educated and respectable colored man, who has shown a peculiar fitness for the important and responsible duties assigned him.

This institution is a decided success. Its permanence depends upon the will of the Legislature. So far it has fulfilled the expectations of its founders and justified the public expenditures made for its sustenance. The $2,000 a year appropriated to it has been money well spent.

The Principal reports the attendance large and regular; and the students diligent in study and orderly in deportment. The total number of students enrolled during the session was seventy-four, forty nine males and twenty-five females. The prospect for the next session is fine. The Principal says it is evident that if this and similar schools shou'd be maintained by the State for a few years, an abundant supply of teachers can be had for all the public schools of the State, on the colored side.

England and D'Israeli.

With our esteemed cotemporary, the Norfolk Landmark, we have not been a believer in the chances of peace in Europe: we are still sceptical on this subject; but the late news is decidedly more pacific than it yet has been. "The indications are that Russia will have to submit the treaty of San Stefano to a Congress of the Great Powers, without reserve, and this, if accomplished, will be a superb triumph for England. The Czar reckoned without his host when he thought John Bull could be defied with impunity and thrust into a corner, and we are glad that the sturdy old fellow has shown his pluck, for otherwise he would have lost reputation and had to fight in the end to regain it. This is what the Gladstones and Brights never understood, and they themselves took their countrymen for a 'nation of shop-keepers.' But they were mistaken, and D'Israeli, a man who will take rank with Pitt, understood the gravity of the issue, and had the courage to meet it. He is a statesman; his opponents have appeared as time-serving politicians; and when we consider the antecedents of Earl Beaconsfield, it is safe to say that he is the most remarkable man England has produced for many centuries. Thus far, his policy, though bitterly opposed at first, has steadily gained ground, and his firmness has elevated England to a position which renders it absurd for any continental Power to sneer at her as has been done more than once in recent years. Whether peace will be secured is doubtful; but in any event the mysterious 'Dizzy' has shown himself worthy to have been Prime Minister to Cromwell himself."

Banner to the Breeze.

"Hang out your banners. On the outer wall the cry is still they come."

The News to-day hangs out the banner of North Carolina Democracy for the campaign of 1878.

The judicial streamer thrown to the breeze this morning bears the names of the gallant Gudger, of Haywood, and the accomplished Avery, of Burke; tried and true sons of the State, and Democrats of sterling antecedents and proud, pure lineage.

The plan of primary organization recommended by the Democratic Executive Committee, subject these nominations to review by the State Convention, in June, but this is merely a condition of comity, as it were, and whatever nominations come up from the judicial districts will receive ready ratification at the hands of the Democracy in the State Convention.

Looking back ten years, public attention is arrested by the difference between then and now. A reconstructed State government under Radical auspices was about to go into operation. The North Carolina Judiciary, as then constituted, every reader is familiar with. It is not necessary, however, for any present purpose to now criticise the caricature on the statue of justice presented to us in 1868. Rather let the dead past bury its dead,—that it may never be said of the people of this noble old commonwealth, they profaned, even under provocation of outrage, insult and indignity, their temple of justice.

A purifying process has from time to time gone on, until the judiciary of North Carolina has been deemed tolerable—much better than any hope held out ten years ago indicated; the real people of our State gradually assuming control of their domestic affairs, so that at the beginning of this campaign but two of the Supreme and three of the Circuit Judges elected in 1868 occupy the places to which they were then assigned. For the relief that has come to the people by accident, the lapse of time and through their own efforts, all North Carolinians have cause to feel unfeignedly thankful; but especially for the opportunity given them of the perfect purification of their judiciary, in this year of grace, are we to hail with everlasting delight.

Called upon to choose a full Supreme Bench and three district Judges, two of the latter have already been designated, and the public demand is fully complied with, and public expectation satisfied in the gentlemen upon whom the choice of the people of the Eighth and Ninth districts has fallen.

Such a beginning but indicates what will be the final work of the other district and of the State convention, to assemble in Raleigh, on the 13th of June. The Democrats who will come up here from every county in the State will present to the people a ticket which all can cheerfully support, for it will deserve their support.

In presenting to the Democrats of North Carolina this morning two of the names on their State ticket for 1878, the News congratulates the Democracy of the whole State. It is as if we were getting back into the ways of better days. The old liberty, regulated by law, is returning to the land; and the spirit of the fathers descends upon us as the dews fall from Heaven.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTEREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately no one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of a Northern climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA

BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

LEE'S PREPARED AGRICULTURAL LIME.

To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $ 00—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per

TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address

A. S. LEE,

I have tried the Xanthine, and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff. W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

Masonic.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of North Carolina will meet in Winston on Monday, June 3d. The Winston Chapter have planned an excursion to Pilot Mountain for the entertainment of the visiting brethren.

Superior Court.

This court meets on Monday next. On that day and on Tuesday the law students will be examined. Nine members of Judge Strong's law class will apply for licenses. His class now numbers 27.

Resigned.

Justice Chas. D. Upchurch, one of the most courteous and efficient of our Magistrates, on yesterday resigned that position. Thus retiring from an office he has filled so acceptably to all, we return our thanks for many favors rendered to us.

To the Front.

Pepper, the renowned caterer of the 19th century, received last night, direct from the ocean, a monster turtle, weighing 130 lbs., and to-day, at eleven o'clock, his inimitable soup will be served to his customers. Families supplied as usual. The same programme for to-morrow.

Penitentiary Recruits.

Sheriff G. M. Moring of Pitt county, on yesterday delivered to the authorities at the State's prison, two convicts, both colored: Charles H. Dickens, alias Pope, convicted of larceny and sentenced to imprisonment for 3 years; and Wiley Patrick, guilty of manslaughter, and imprisoned for 10 years.

After Long Absence.

Mr. O. Borton, who was superintendent of the moulding and ornamental work of the State Capitol, when that edifice was built, 38 years ago, was in the city last week. Mr. Borton is a resident of Woodstock, N. J. The only object of his visit here was took once more upon the building he had helped to erect and finish. He expressed his surprise and gratification at the excellent preservation of the building. The great changes in the appearance of the city were such that he could point out but two or three buildings that stood when he was last here. One of these was the house of Dr. F. J. Haywood, near the capitol square. All the old landmarks were gone. Mr. B. is a representative man at his Northern home. He is president of an Agricultural Society and of some local prominence. After spending two or three days in our city he returned, having paid his visit, and looked once again upon our beautiful capitol.

Pardoned.

His Excellency, the Governor, on yesterday pardoned Bedford Lee, who was convicted of the crime of highway robbery, at the Spring Term, 1875, of Rockingham Superior Court, and sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for 20 years. The pardon was granted upon petition of the Judge, county officials, prosecutor, and many citizens, on the ground that subsequent proof, since the trial, has established the innocence of the prisoner.

The Executive clemency was also extended to James Needham, who was convicted of horse stealing, at the Fall Term, 1877, of Randolph Superior Court. For this offence he was sentenced to 5 years in State's prison. The petition for pardon, which bears the signatures of the Judge, Solicitor, and prosecutor, states that the crime was committed while under the influence of liquor, and that the man was arrested while in the act of returning the stolen horse to his owner, being then sober.

Valuable Property.

The elegant building and grounds on Hillsboro Avenue, known as the Blount place, the property of Wm. A. Blount, Esq., was disposed of by sale yesterday at the Court House. There was quite a crowd in attendance. The property had been divided in five lots. Lot No. 1, with a front of 85 feet on Hillsboro Avenue, and running back 240 feet, was sold to Chas. E. Johnson, Esq., for $1,300. Lot. No. 2, same front and depth as the first, was sold to Mr. W. H. Crawford, for $900. Lot No. 3, on which are the elegant residence and out buildings, having a front of 192 feet on Hillsboro Avenue, was sold to Dr. T. D. Martin, for $6,250. Lots No's 4 and 5 were not disposed of, as the prices ruled so low as to render it undesirable to sell them at such a sacrifice.

Ice Cream Festival.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church, with great taste and trouble so arranged the room where their entertainment was held last evening, as to make it present an appearance unusually attractive. The tables were filled with choicest edibles. The ladies exerted themselves to render the time pleasant, and succeeded entirely. The cause for which the festival was held, that is for the purpose of aiding in the erection of the new church edifice, was a most worthy one. The affair was decidedly a success.

A Sensible Plan.

The booksellers of our city have made an agreement to close their stores every night, except Saturdays, at 8 o'clock, after the first of June. This rule will be observed for three months. This is a wise step, and it would be well if other merchants would follow. The season is the dull one, the sales after nightfall light, and the clerks are tired out with their long day's work. In most of the cities the rule of early closing prevails. We are generally the last to adopt plans of a beneficial nature, but it is not too late to do well.

Parade To-Day.

In the procession to the National Cemetery this afternoon, on the occasion of the decoration of the graves of the Federal dead, there will be three companies of colored troops. These will be the Oak City Blues, Oberlin Vance Guards, and East Raleigh Guards, all of the 4th Battalion N. C. S. G. At the conclusion of the memorial ceremonies the battalion will have a dress parade.

The Presbyterian Pic-Nic.

The excursion of the Sabbath school of this church takes place to-morrow morning. The affair will be held at Faison's farm, near this city. The train leaves the R. & G. depot at 8 a. m. Ample accommodations will be provided for the scholars and invited friends. There will be no tickets sold. The scholars will be in charge of Mr. W. C. Stronach, chief marshal.

Catholic Pic-Nic.

The Sunday School of St. John's Church propose having a basket picnic at the farm of Col. Faison, on the R. & G. Railway, on the 11th of June. Musie will be provided and dancing indulged in. Tickets will be placed on sale for those who may choose to attend. These will be sold at 50 cents each.

Wake Criminal Court.

Court met at 10 a. m. yesterday, His Honor, Judge Strong, presiding.

The case of the State vs. Chas. Johnson, for burglary, occupied the entire day in its partial trial. One of the co-defendants, Caroline Blackwell, turned State's evidence. Pending her examination court adjourned, to meet to-day at 10 o'clock.

Johnston Graded School.

The pupils of this large colored school gave an exhibition at Metropolitan Hall last evening. The Hall was filled by a large crowd. The exercises consisted of songs, declamations etc., which where all rendered in a creditable manner. The school numbers about 200 pupils, and is in a flourishing condition.

State Guard Gossip.

The Winston Light Infantry have fortunately secured a fine hall for an armory, over the store of R. T. Gray, Esq., in Winston. They will hold a festival for the benefit of the company this evening. The progress of the corps is satisfactory, and they will be present at the next encampment in October.

Death in the Penitentiary.

Sarah D. Johnson, white, the only female convict of that color incarcerated in the Penitentiary, died on Sunday last. She was from Iredell county, and was sentenced to imprisonment for 10 years, from Sept. 1877, fer the crime of infanticide.

Masonic.

There will be a called meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, to-night, Thursday, at 8 o'clock. Officers and members will please attend promptly.

——Fine shad are running in quantities in the Neuse at Milburnie. Over 100 were caught a day or so since.

The Complimentary "German."

Returning the compliment not long since paid them by the young gentlemen, a select party of our young ladies gave last evening a "German" to their friends of the other sex. The hall in the Bagley building, which though small, is both elegant and convenient, was selected as the place for the dance. There were but few participants in the "German," the number of ladies being limited. Among the ladies present, some as dancers, others as lookers on, we observed the following: Misses Bessie Batchelor, D. Bryan, Lavine Haywood, Placide Englehard, Bettie Haywood, Mamie Lewis, Eliza McKee, Mary Mordecai, Nellie Johnson, Mamie Blacknall, Maggie Fowle Olivia Cowper, Mrs. J. B. Batchelor, Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mrs. A. C. Saunders, Mrs. J. D. Whitaker, Mrs Wm. Grimes, Mrs. F. J. Haywood, Jr., Mrs. William Little and Mrs. J. A. Englehard. Quite a number of gentlemen were in attendance. Each of the young lady participants had invited a gentleman. Some of the costumes worn were tasty. The music was good, and the affair passed off in an enjoyable manner.

Y. M. C. A.

There was a called meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last night, which was largely attended. The Treasurer submitted a statement of the operations of the Association during the past winter and the President was requested to have it published in the city papers for the information of our citizens. Delegates were appointed to attend the State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association which is to meet at Greensboro on the 14, of June. Names of delegates who are to attend will be published hereafter.

Mr. F. Morrell, Bangor, Me., July 2, 1873, writes: "Six months ago my friends thought me incurable, suffering from Weakness, Disordered Stomach and Fever. The doctors gave me no benefit. I was persuaded to try Holden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator; after using three bottles began to improve, and to day feel perfectly well." Williams & Haywood, Agts. may 29-d2w

A Manifest Absurdity.

It is manifestly absurd to claim for a mere stimulant, tonic and alterative properties, yet this is what is daily done by the vendors of cheap local bitters, colored to make them look attractive, and agreeably flavored but the alcoholic basis of which is of the vilest and most hurtful description. The transcendent success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the leading alterative tonic of the United States, has produced many of these compounders of drams in disguise, to attempt the counterfeiting of this standard medicine, but their efforts have never proved successful on a large scale, and they have themselves in many instances notoriously "come to grief," through the instrumentality of the law.

The genuine Bitters have indeed, a spirituous basis, but they are emphatically a medicine, since their botanic ingredients are signally efficacious in overcoming and preventing chills and fever, dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, and many other disorders.
